

Marco DiMaccio -PRINCIPAL DESIGNER

Marco DiMaccio is the award winning principal designer behind PUNCHHOUSE DESIGN GROUP which brings a playful and responsible approach to the world of design. With a background in architecture, product design, and film work, DiMaccio developed PUNCHHOUSE DESIGN GROUP - a company dedicated to creating thoughtful architecture and products.

DiMaccio received his formal education from Rhode Island School of Design and Art Center College of Design. His accomplishments span an impressive range, all of which have inspired and informed his highly honed eye for all aspects of design. Known for his rich modernist style, DiMaccio's designs are a beautiful balance of playful modernism and creative efficiency earning him numerous innovation in design awards, appearances on national television shows, and multiple publications.

